OPERATIONS

Tantalite Valley Project, Namibia

The Tantalite Valley project is located on Mining Licence 77, near Karasburg and Warmbad, within the Magisterial district of Karas in the south of Namibia.

The Company has now completed the 60% sell-down to African Tantalum (Pty) Limited of, and creation of a joint venture in respect of the Tantalite Valley Project, details of which was first announced on 31 July 2014.

Gravelotte Project, South Africa

The Gravelotte Project is located close to the town of Gravelotte in the Limpopo province of South Africa. The Gravelotte Project shares a boundary with the Consolidated Murchison Mine, the oldest known antimony deposit in the world. Emeralds were discovered in the Gravelotte area in 1927 and since then several companies have mined and explored the area for emeralds. From 1929 to 1982 the total recorded emerald production from the Gravelotte Project and areas surrounding the Gravelotte township was reported as nearly 113 million carats. It is reported that during the 1960s the Gravelotte Project was the largest mine of its type in the world, employing over 400 sorters.

During the period from 1978 to 1982 the following Plant Throughput, Consigned Emerald rough and Grades were reported for the plant at the Gravelotte Mine:

Figure 1

Year	Source	Plant Throughput (tonne)	Consigned Emerald Grade (gram)	Grade (gram/tonnes)
1978-1982	Production from primary ore	394,686	3,252,152	8.24
1978-1982	Production from tailings and dumps only	73,798	508,423	6.89
1978-1982	Total Production	468,484	3,760,575	8.03

The host rocks are 3.3 billion year old Archaean greenstone schists enclosed and intruded by younger Archaean granitic rock and late stage albite-quartz pegmatoids. Emerald mineralization is closely related to the pegmatoids.

The mine area hosts schists that form a star-shaped outcrop pattern defined by two structural trends and northeast-trending and steep-sided granite bodies. The emerald-bearing zones and their subdivisions are as follows:

- Cobra – comprising Cobra North, Cobra South and Cobra Underground;
- Discovery – comprising Discovery Pit, Discovery East and Discovery South;
- Beryl Kop – comprising Beryl Kop East and Beryl Kop West; and
- Sable Kop.

The work undertaken during the quarter has included a review of the 2014 high resolution magnetic & radiometric survey which has identified several geophysical targets for follow-up. A drill programme to follow-up certain geophysical and geological targets combining core and percussion drilling has been planned and costed.

A topographic survey of the North and South Cobra open pits has been completed. In addition, a number of historical mine plans from when the Cobra mining operation ceased in the eighties have been recovered and submitted for potential digitisation in order to create a 3-d geological model of the mine area.

A topographic survey of tailings dumps surrounding the open pits has been undertaken by an independent surveyor to identify first pass tailings targets. This work should establish a volume of prospective material that can be tested through the proposed processing plant.

Access tracks for the proposed tailings processing plant on a site adjacent to the open pits have been completed. 8 large concrete settling ponds adjacent to the proposed tailings treatment site are in the process of being cleaned out and repaired. The site is being cleaned of accumulated debris and prepared for use. The Company has obtained quotes for the various parts of a recovery plant using state of the art technology, in particular an Optical Sorter.

A programme to collect a selection of emerald crystals from the Cobra North open pit has been instituted.

Contact has been made with the DMR in Polokwane with a view to putting the mine site into a compliant condition. An inspection visit by the DMR to site has recently been hosted and a start made on attending to the compliance items raised by the DMR. The Company has upgraded the mining infrastructure in preparation for increased activities and has an ongoing programme to rehabilitate historical issues.
